

Sharing the trail with...

Bears & Cougars

Of all the animals in the wild lands of New Mexico, bears and cougars are two of the most talked about and misunderstood. These large mammals are wild, powerful and unpredictable. While encounters are generally rare, knowing the dos and don'ts of sharing the trails with bears and cougars will help you safely enjoy your time in the great outdoors.

Join us for this ranger talk at the playground shelter
Saturday, July 9th at 2PM

